Condition

This 2003 Pro Sports Sun-Seeker 2100 appears to be in nice condition and was clean when visited for pictures. Even the engine nearly twenty years old appeared to be in great condition and well-maintained. The owner states that it is flushed and cleaned after each use and has been serviced regularly. He believes all features function as intended except for the horn and two speakers do not work. The hull shows some dock rash not uncommon for its age and the bottom paint appears old.
